

The A. F. of L. Weekly News Service provides news and editorial comment on national and international affairs, labor, and politics.
and individual facts, and provides information of benefit to the trade union movement.

WEEKLY NEWS SERVICE

Published on Wednesday, July 26, 1934, at the Post Office at Washington, D. C., under the Post Office No. 1155, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized July 12, 1933.
Authorization for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Sec. 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized July 12, 1933.

WHOLE NO. 173

WILLIAM GREEN, President

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, JULY 25, 1934

MEMBER, SECRETARY-TREASURER

VOL. 34, NO. 30

FACING THE FACTS

With PHILIP PEARL

Bitney Hillman and the effects of Communism, left-wingers, and union politicians who make up the CIO Political Action Committee, are making

They came to Chicago with great ambitions and bold plans. They were going to capture control of the Democratic party. They were going to show the people the truth about the CIO. They were going to show the people the truth about the CIO.

Also for Sidney and his followers? They took a terrible licking. As they left Chicago, they left behind them a lot of trouble. They left behind them a lot of trouble. They left behind them a lot of trouble.

Why was Wallace afraid to ever his CIO allegiance? Because he knew that if he did, he would lose his political position. He would lose his political position. He would lose his political position.

Why must take it like it even though the Democratic Party has been on publicity trips and disavows them. And that is more than likely to happen as time passes.

Early indications of it were apparent in Chicago. The Democrats were more than a little apprehensive over the page-one Chicago Tribune cartoon picturing Hillman, the pants presser, at their political boss.

Even Wallace got panicky over being named with the CIO label. When he arrived in Chicago, reporters asked him twice at a press conference whether he had conferred with Hillman. He refused to answer. This was the only question which he refused to answer.

Why was Wallace afraid to ever his CIO allegiance? Because he knew that if he did, he would lose his political position. He would lose his political position. He would lose his political position.

If Hillman and his boys can take such insults from their friends and like them, they are welcome to the pleasure.

As the campaign progresses, the Republicans are bound to keep on emphasizing that the CIO is the enemy of the American people. The Democrats are bound to keep on emphasizing that the CIO is the enemy of the American people.

If Sidney and his amateur staff can take this and like it, they are lower in self-esteem than even we suspect. They can crawl and fawn and continue to support a man who is treating them as dogs.

AFL Gains Prestige

By abandoning labor's traditional non-partisan political policy and by gambling their future on the outcome of the coming election, the Hillmanites have won their own war.

On the other hand, the American Federation of Labor, by having closely to non-partisan political policy, has gained in political prestige and influence.

A news hint from the AFL came that Senator Truman would be considered far more favorably as the Vice Presidential candidate than Wallace, assured the nomination of the Democratic party.

Reluctant as the convention was to make any specific pledges in its platform, it took heart of President Green's demands for the Connally-Smith Act, and gave implied assurances that this would be done.

We talked in a great many places at the Democratic Convention. At first, we assumed they would be to the AFL because of its neutral position and corresponding loyalty to the CIO for its entire existence. But we were pleasantly surprised.

Every delegate to whom we spoke expressed resentment over the CIO activities at the convention. Every one of them said that the CIO support might turn out to be a greater liability than an asset. Their respect for the AFL grew in proportion to their respect for the CIO.

It might be attributed, at least in part, to prejudice and emotional grounds. But a very important and practical political factor entered into the picture. Because the Democrats are sure of the CIO, they are sure of the CIO. They are sure of the CIO. They are sure of the CIO.

Corporation Profits Double In War

Time Pages Lag, Say They Find

Washington, D. C.—Corporations are making the big money out of the war. They are making the big money out of the war. They are making the big money out of the war.

It is the fact that the war has increased the profits of corporations. It is the fact that the war has increased the profits of corporations. It is the fact that the war has increased the profits of corporations.

In the case of corporations, it was possible to obtain facts that show that they are making more money than they did before the war. It was possible to obtain facts that show that they are making more money than they did before the war.

In other words, during the war, the profits of corporations have increased. In other words, during the war, the profits of corporations have increased. In other words, during the war, the profits of corporations have increased.

The article charged that the Administration was not doing enough to help the workers. The article charged that the Administration was not doing enough to help the workers. The article charged that the Administration was not doing enough to help the workers.

As a result, said the study, only a small number of workers are able to live on the money they are making. As a result, said the study, only a small number of workers are able to live on the money they are making. As a result, said the study, only a small number of workers are able to live on the money they are making.

AFL Wins Shipyard Election

New York City—An important and significant election victory was won by the AFL Metal Trades Department in the shipyard at Westchester, N. Y.

The AFL union won by a wide margin of 1,800 to 200. The AFL union won by a wide margin of 1,800 to 200. The AFL union won by a wide margin of 1,800 to 200.

William J. Daly, AFL secretary, said that the AFL union had won the election by a wide margin. William J. Daly, AFL secretary, said that the AFL union had won the election by a wide margin. William J. Daly, AFL secretary, said that the AFL union had won the election by a wide margin.

The AFL union had won the election by a wide margin. The AFL union had won the election by a wide margin. The AFL union had won the election by a wide margin.

William McCarthy Dies
WAS BILL POSTERS SECY

New York City—William McCarthy, Secretary of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees, died here today.

Mr. McCarthy had been in poor health for some time. He had been in poor health for some time. He had been in poor health for some time.

He was born in New York City. He was born in New York City. He was born in New York City.

AFL AIRCRAFT WORKERS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—AFL workers in plants producing planes for the Government have won the right to organize.

The AFL union has won the election by a wide margin. The AFL union has won the election by a wide margin. The AFL union has won the election by a wide margin.

The AFL union has won the election by a wide margin. The AFL union has won the election by a wide margin. The AFL union has won the election by a wide margin.

Truman, AFL choice, named for Vice President; Democrats nominate Wallace, Candidate

Platform of Democratic Party Makes Some Concessions To Demands Of AFL Leaders

Chicago — In a brief, streamlined platform which contained no separate labor plank, the Democratic Party gave support to some of the outstanding demands of the American Federation of Labor.

At a luncheon before the convention's resolution committee, President Green announced that the party would support the Connally-Smith Act, and support amendments to the National Labor Relations Act to prevent them from being repealed.

The AFL leaders, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Green, who had been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

VETERANS SIGN JOBS PACT WITH ORGANIZED LABOR

Washington, D. C.—The Veterans of Foreign Wars announced agreement with the AFL and CIO on a policy under which organized labor will grant civilian job seniority to war veterans and give them better than an even break in raising wages and getting jobs after the war ends.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

The AFL union, which has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

AFL Exerts Quiet But Effective Influence In Convention; Party Leaders Irked By CIO Tactics

Chicago—AFL leaders were highly pleased with the outcome of the Democratic National Convention just concluded here.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

Defeat of Vice President Henry A. Wallace for renomination and the choice of Senator Harry S. Truman to replace him in the ticket were two of the major objectives of more than fifty AFL union representatives who attended as delegates.

BROWNELL SAYS LABOR WILL VOTE FOR DEWEY

Washington, D. C.—Herbert Brownell, Jr., vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, said today that he believed the labor vote would go for Thomas E. Dewey for President.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.

Mr. Brownell, who has been waiting for the right to decide for themselves whether or not to support the party, were pleased with the concessions.